Happy Holidays

Fall Pancake Day
November 8, 2025

The Fall Pancake Day was, by all accounts, another success for KCOW!

By 9:30am, the line of people waiting to be served had entirely circled the gym, the tables were already occupied and full, and the line waiting for 'To Go' orders was out the front door. Big thanks to all who participated in this event!

Robin Doss (pictured left) manned the coffee station for the first shift of Pancake Day and by late morning was experiencing mechanical difficulties with the burners which resulted in the flames burning higher and hotter than normal. Robin immediately hit the shut-off valve and mitigated any further issues involving the propane gas or the flames. Thanks to his quick thinking and actions, a potentially dangerous situation was avoided. However, the burners were out of commission for the rest of the day, and coffee had to be made in the kitchen. At right, Robin discusses the condition of the burners with Clay Perry.

Freedom Isn't Free

Thank You, Veterans

To understand a Military Veteran-you must know:

We left home as teenagers or in our early twenties for an unknown adventure.

We loved our country enough to defend it and protect it with our own lives.

We said goodbye to friends and family and everything we knew.

We learned the basics and then we scattered in the wind to the far corners of the earth.

We found new friends and new family.

We became brothers and sisters regardless of color, race or creed.

We had plenty of good times, and plenty of bad times.

We didn't get enough sleep.

We worked hard and played harder.

We didn't earn a great wage.

We experienced the happiness of mail call and the sadness of missing important events.

We didn't know when, or even if, we were ever going to see home again.

We grew up fast, and yet somehow, we never grew up at all.

We fought for our freedom, as well as the freedom of others.

Some of us saw actual combat, and some of us didn't.

Some of us saw the world, and some of us didn't. Some of us dealt with physical warfare, most of us dealt with psychological warfare.

We have seen and experienced and dealt with things that we can't fully describe or explain, as not all of our sacrifices were physical.

We participated in time honored ceremonies and rituals with each other, strengthening our bonds and camaraderie.

We counted on each other to get our job done and sometimes to survive it at all.

We have dealt with victory and tragedy, We have celebrated and mourned.

We lost a few along the way.

When our adventure was over, some of us went back home, some of us started somewhere new and some of us never came home at all.

We have told amazing and hilarious stories of our exploits and adventures.

We share an unspoken bond with each other, that most people don't experience, and few will understand.

10

We speak highly of our own branch of service and poke fun at the other branches.

We know however, that, if needed, we will be there for our brothers and sisters and stand together as one in a heartbeat.

Being a Veteran is something that had to be earned, and it can never be taken away,

It has no monetary value, but at the same time it is a priceless gift. People see a Veteran and they thank them for their service.

When we see each other, we give that little upward head nod, or a slight smile knowing that we have shared and experienced things that most people have not.

So from myself to the rest of the Veterans out there, I command and thank you for all that you have done and sacrificed for your country.

Try to remember the good times and make peace with the bad times. Share your stories. But most importantly, stand tall and proud, for you have earned the right to be called a Veteran.

I'M A VETERAN!

Tuesday, November 11th was Veterans Day this year. In honor of all KCOW veterans that have served, Kiwanian Rick Balzhiser read aloud the attached article that shares some insights into the hearts and minds of our nation's service members.

The Kourier wishes to thank our KCOW veterans for their service to our country.

happen. Their dedication ensured everything ran smoothly. We're deeply grateful for the long hours and steady leadership they put into this event.

I hope you all enjoyed a wonderful Thanksgiving surrounded by family, friends, and good food. As we move into December, I want to wish you and your loved ones a very happy holiday season. May it be filled with warmth, rest, and moments that remind you why community matters.

Happy Birthday to Doug Butler, who will turn 101 on December 19th!

We also have much to look forward to as we celebrate our annual Children's Christmas Party. This event captures the heart of Kiwanis—bringing joy, support, and smiles to the young people in our community. I hope your holiday spirit is already warmed up—if not, don't worry, the kids will bring enough energy to power the city lights.

Thank you in advance to Ginny Grant, Kay Anderson and everyone who is helping to make this tradition special.

Thank you for all you do to lift up our club and our community.

Happy Holidays,

Susan
